

The City of Homer is accepting applications for a Full-Time Police Officer I/ II/ or III. Successful applicants must pass the following pre-employment screens: drug screen, written and oral exam, psychological and polygraph examinations, as well as a physical examination and background investigation. High School Diploma required. See job description for additional information.

- Work Schedule: 4/10
- Shift differential
- Take home patrol car program
- PERS retirement plan
- Uniforms and equipment provided
- Attractive health, dental, visual and life insurance package
- Annual leave
- Sick leave
- Paid Holidays: 11 days per year plus your birthday
- Presentation of duty weapon and badge upon retirement

Starting salary for entry level or Police Officer I, $26.71 to $29.05 per hour, DOQ, with attractive benefits.

Lateral transfers will be considered for experienced police officers

Starting salary for Police Officer II, $27.58 to $30.00 DOQ,

Alaska Police Standards Council (APSC) Intermediate Certification

Starting Salary for Police Officer III, $28.43 to $30.92, DOQ,

APSC Advanced Certification

Signing bonus for officers with APSC Basic Certification $3,000

APSC Intermediate Certification $4,000

APSC Advanced Certification $5,000

Applicants are required to complete a City of Homer Police Officer Application which includes the Alaska Police Standards Council F-3 form. Resumes may also be attached to your application. Information regarding the police hiring procedure and City benefits is also available on this site.

The City of Homer is an EEO/AAE