Iditarod Re-Start Enforcement

(ANCHORAGE, Alaska) – Nearly every year Alaskans and tourists alike gravitate toward the community of Willow to witness the re-start of the last great race. This year the Alaska State Troopers Bureau of Highway Patrol will be on hand to ensure the safety of the people coming and going to this truly Alaskan event. This special enforcement effort is in line with the mission of ABHP to bring the number of fatal and major injury collisions down to zero.

Regardless of what your ultimate plans are for this weekend, Troopers encourage you to always practice safe driving behaviors on the roads while traveling to and from your destination. Always have a plan to get home safely.
