

DPS PR#14-015
May 1, 2014

Two Troopers Killed in the Line of Duty

(TANANA, Alaska) – Two Alaska State Troopers were killed in Tanana today, May 1, while conducting an investigation. The Troopers responded to Tanana to follow-up on a report from last night that a subject had brandished a firearm in the village. One person has been detained. The details surrounding the deaths are unknown at this time. The Alaska Bureau of Investigation is responding to Tanana to investigate the incident and surrounding circumstances of the Troopers deaths. Next of kin notification for the deceased is underway. We will provide more details as they become available.