

Leadership Through Understanding Human Behavior (LTUHB)

Dates: Two Course Offerings—14-16 September and 19-21 September 2016

Length: 3 Training Days

Location: Anchorage Police Training Center - 3760 W Dimond Blvd, Anchorage, AK

Description: The Leadership Through Understanding Human Behavior Training Program (LTUHB) was designed to provide law enforcement leaders with a training vehicle that can help to develop more effective work groups and teams. Participants will develop a better understanding of themselves, interpersonal dynamics, and how their strengths, weaknesses, and roles within work groups and teams affect a mission's outcome. Participants learn how to adapt and capitalize on each others strengths in order to have more effective mission outcomes. This program can be customized based on the specific needs of the customer.

Prerequisites: Applicants must be sworn law enforcement officers/agents or law enforcement support personnel employed by a federal, state, local or tribal agency or department.

To Register: Please send an email to SSgt Eva McElroy at eva.j.mcelroy.mil@mail.mil prior to 19 August 2016. Be sure to leave your name, organization, and preferred course session.
