

FAIRBANKS AIRPORT POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENT TRAINING NOTICE

Information:

The Fairbanks Airport Police & Fire Department will be hosting two days of Defensive Tactics Training. This training is certified by the APSC.

There are 16 FREE spots open to any local/state/federal officers in the area.

Subject:

The course will cover hand to hand combatives, weapon disarms (handgun, long gun, blunt weapons and knives) and ground fighting for law enforcement. This is a user course, not an instructor course. This is perfect for police officers, corrections officers, court service officers or anyone else that may find themselves in a violent encounter with a suspect/inmate. This is an excellent addition to any DT/PMA system currently in use by your department.
