

State of Alaska
Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

Putting Prevention to Work: Alaskan Communities Working Together to End Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence

2015 Summit, March 4-6, Anchorage, Alaska

Community Application

If you are a RETURNING community applicant please answer questions 1-5 below. If you are a NEW community applicant please answer questions 6-10 below. The deadline to apply for community participation at the Prevention Summit is January 23rd. Successful applicants will be notified by January 30th, then sign a memorandum of understanding with the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault in order to receive financial assistance to attend the summit.

Community:

Community Partners (identify up to 6): please provide the names, community affiliation, and contact phone numbers and/or emails of your community partners applying to attend this event (limit of six). Scholarships will be available for up to three community partners. Three additional community partners are welcome to attend the summit at their own expense.

Partner 1:

Partner 2:

Partner 3:

Partner 4:

Partner 5:

Partner 6:

Did your community team participate in the 2013 Prevention Summit?

Yes:

No: (please respond to questions 6-10)

Please limit your responses to the questions listed under either the RETURNING COMMUNITY APPLICANT or NEW COMMUNITY APPLICANT categories listed below. Please limit your responses to one typed-double spaced page per question (300-words or less).

For Returning Community Applicants ONLY:

#1: Coalition Building: Following your teams' attendance at the 2013 Summit, please describe your efforts to increase the number of community level stakeholders participating in your team plan to prevent domestic violence, dating violence and/or sexual assault.

#2: Social Norms Change: Please describe prevention policies, programs and/or other methods of primary prevention that were established as a next step during community planning sessions at the 2013 Summit. If no next steps were established, please describe why.

#3: Community Mobilization: Please describe your efforts in mobilizing your community to participate in and implement prevention strategies.

4: What kind of support or training, does your community need to be successful in order to sustain and/or build upon your prevention plans?

#5: What does your committee hope to gain from attending the summit in March 2015?

Please provide us with the most recent copy of your community-based plan for primary prevention that was either developed or enhanced at the 2013 Prevention Summit.

For NEW Community Applicants Only:

6: Does your community have a current prevention plan (developed within the past 3-5 years)? Please describe and attach your most recent prevention plan to this application.

(For example: RurAL CAP has worked with many Alaskan communities to develop community wellness plans, United Way has also provided assistance to communities with the development of community prevention planning).#7: Does your prevention plan specifically address domestic violence and sexual assault? If so, please describe.

#8: What prevention efforts are you and your community partners currently undertaking?

(For example: School or community-based programs that promote wellness and serve to reduce/prevent or protect against underage drinking, teen-pregnancy, teen-dating violence, child sexual abuse, suicide).

9: What kind of support or training, does your community need to be successful in order to sustain and/or build upon your prevention plans?

#10: What does your group hope to gain from the summit?

Please submit your application to ann.rausch@alaska.gov or via regular mail to: Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, P.O. Box 111200, Juneau, AK 99811-1200.

Applications must be received by January 23rd in order to be considered. Successful applicants will be notified by January 30th. Please don't hesitate to contact Ann Rausch at 907.465.5015 with further questions regarding the summit.