

DPS PIO# 11-028

May 16, 2011

Troopers Seek Public Assistance in Locating Missing Two Rivers Man

(FAIRBANKS, Alaska) – The Alaska State Troopers are requesting the public's assistance in locating Travis Walker Spurling, 22 of Two Rivers. Spurling was reported missing the afternoon of Saturday, May 14, 2011. Spurling's family, along with law enforcement, believe him to be at risk.

Spurling was last seen on Friday evening. Spurling is a white male standing approximately 6 feet tall and weighing 180 pounds. He has sandy-colored short hair and green eyes. He has a short reddish full beard and mustache. He was wearing black cowboy boots, black Carhartt pants and a black ZZ Top t-shirt. Spurling was also wearing a brown cowboy hat.

Travis Spurling is considered a missing person/endangered. Troopers believe that Spurling is in the Two Rivers area as he knows the locale well. However, no evidence to his whereabouts has been found. Anyone with information regarding Spurling's whereabouts are encouraged to contact law enforcement immediately by calling 451-5100 or 911.