ABC Board Charges Woman for Selling Alcohol without a License

(ANCHORAGE, Alaska) – On March 17, 2011 members of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, with the assistance of Alaska State Troopers and the Anchorage Police Department served a search warrant at an Anchorage establishment. ABC Board investigators had received information that 49-year old Yong Suk Dalie was providing alcoholic beverages at the Lotte Singing Club without the proper licensing. Through an undercover operation, investigators confirmed alcoholic beverages were provided for sale.

Yong Suk Dalie was the only person on the premise at the time of the service of the search warrant. She was arrested and charged with three counts of selling alcohol without a license and three counts of running a bottle club. She is being held on $2500 cash only bail and 3rd party release.

Investigators seized business records, furniture, karaoke equipment, other electronics, approximately $5000 in cash, spirits, beer, and wine from nine various rooms at the complex.

Please direct any inquiries regarding this investigation to Shirley Gifford, Director of the ABC Board, at 269-0351.
