Public Comments Sought for Regulation Change Allowing VPSOs to Carry Firearms

(ANCHORAGE, Alaska) – The Department of Public Safety is seeking public comments on proposed changes to the Village Public Safety Officer Program regulations. The changes would allow qualifying VPSOs to carry firearms while on duty. The language in the revisions also specifies how a VPSO must qualify and what oversight should occur.

The public is encouraged to review the public notice relating to proposed changes. Public comment is open until 4:30 p.m. on January 17, 2014. The link below will bring you to the proposed regulation changes and also explain how you can submit your public comment.
