APPENDIX 1. DEFINITION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE INFORMATION

I. CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION

- A. PAST CONVICTION INFORMATION: information showing that an identifiable person who has been unconditionally discharged has been previously convicted of a crime; past conviction information includes:
- i. the terms of any sentence, probation, suspended imposition of sentence, or discretionary or mandatory parole; and
 - ii. information that a criminal conviction has been reversed, vacated, set aside, or been the subject of executive clemency
- B. CURRENT OFFENDER INFORMATION: information showing that an identifiable person
- i. is currently under arrest for or is charged with a crime and
 - ...prosecution is under review or has been deferred by written or oral agreement;
 - ...a warrant exists for the person's arrest; or
 - ...less than a year has elapsed since the date of the arrest or filing of the charges, whichever is latest;
 - ii. is currently released on bail or on other conditions imposed by a court in a criminal case, either pretrial or post-trial, including the conditions of the release;
 - iii. is currently serving a criminal sentence or is under the custody of the commissioner of corrections for supervision purposes; "current offender information" under this subparagraph includes
 - ...the terms and conditions of any sentence, probation, suspended imposition of sentence, discretionary or mandatory parole, furlough, executive clemency, or other release; and
 - ...the location of any place of incarceration, halfway house, restitution center, or other correctional placement to which the person is assigned; or
 - iv. has had a criminal conviction or sentence reversed, vacated, set aside, or has been the subject of executive clemency;
- C. CRIMINAL IDENTIFICATION INFORMATION: means fingerprints, photographs, and other information or descriptions that identify a person as having been the subject of a criminal arrest or prosecution.

II. NONCONVICTION INFORMATION:

means information that an identifiable person was arrested or that criminal charges were filed or considered against the person and

- A. a prosecutor or grand jury has elected not to bring criminal proceedings against the person and at least a year has elapsed since that decision;
- B. criminal charges against the person have been dismissed or the person has been acquitted and at least a year has elapsed since that action; or
- C. there is no indication of the disposition of the criminal charges or the arrest and at least a year has elapsed since the arrest, filing of the charges, or referral of the matter for review by a prosecutor, whichever is latest.

III. CORRECTIONAL TREATMENT INFORMATION:

information about an identifiable person, excluding past conviction information or current offender information, collected to monitor that person in a correctional facility or while under correctional supervision, including the person's current or past institutional behavior, medical, or psychological condition, or rehabilitative progress.

IV. INFORMATION RELATING TO A PERSON TO BE LOCATED, WHETHER OR NOT THAT PERSON IS WANTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMMISSION OF A CRIME.
