

Coaching Boys Into Men Basketball Coaching Clinic

Bethel Regional High School

November 8-9, 2019

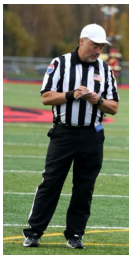

Coaching Boys Into Men (CBIM)

Coaching Boys into Men (CBIM) is a comprehensive violence prevention curriculum and program that inspires athletic coaches to teach their young athletes that violence never equals strength and violence against women is wrong. The program comes with strategies, scenarios, and resources needed to talk to boys, about healthy and respectful relationships, dating violence, sexual assault, and harassment. The curriculum is designed to be incorporated into a coach's weekly practice plan. CBIM provides support and follow-up communications throughout the season.

Coaching Clinicians

James Shetter

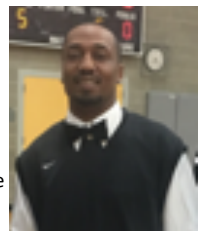

Mr. James Shetter has been teaching for over 20 years in both the Mat-Su and Anchorage School districts. Born of Yupik descent, Mr. Shetter is a true Alaskan Native educator. He earned his Bachelor's degree from University of Alaska, Anchorage and his Master's degree in Educational Leadership at the University of Alaska, Juneau. Mr. Shetter has spent several years serving as the head coach for Wasilla High School Native Youth Olympic (NYO) Team which won the 2009 and 2010 NYO State Championship.

He also spent 20 seasons as an assistant football in Alaska and the head football coach for three seasons at Wasilla High School. During the 2008 football season, Mr. Shetter was honored as the Coach of the Year in Football representing WHS and also represented the State of Alaska at the 2009 NFL Youth Summit in Canton, Ohio. Mr. Shetter also competed in college as a varsity athlete in football at Sierra College and Sacramento State.

Antonio Wyche

Mr. Antonio Wyche is currently a Safety/Security Home School Coordinator in the Anchorage School District. The former East Anchorage basketball star played under the direction of legendary coach, Chuck White. Mr. Wyche played semi-pro basketball and has over 20 years of playing and coaching in Alaska. Mr. Wyche took over the West Anchorage Eagles program and led them to the state championship. During his tenure, Mr. Wyche was recognized twice as coach of the year and led the Eagles to two state runner-ups and two conference championships. His aggressive, fast-paced transition style of play is well suited for smaller high school programs.
