

The Tanana Valley Firefighters Association is proud to present:

The Art of Reading Smoke
&
In The Hot Seat: Tactical Decision
Making on the Fireground

Presented By Deputy Chief (Ret) Phil Jose
Day 1 includes dynamic teaching and fireground video help you learn the skill of Reading Smoke where you will Learn about Volume, Velocity, Density and Color. Explore how those attributes indicate fire size, location and predict fire behavior.

On Day 2, improve your strategic and tactical decision-making with a full day training to be In the Hot Seat: Tactical Decision Making on the Fireground

March 28, 2026 - The Art of Reading Smoke

March 29, 2026 – In The Hot Seat, Tactical Decision Making on the Fireground

Time for both classes will be 0900-1700. Location is TBD.

Phil Jose is a Deputy Chief (Ret) with Seattle FD. Nationally Known Instructor of The Art of Reading Smoke and Tactical Decision Making, Co-Author of “Air Management for the Fire Service.” 2008 Recipient of the FDIC Tom Brennan Training Achievement Award. FDIC HOT and Classroom instructor since 2004.

$25 fee for 1 Day, $45 for both days for all Non-TVFA members

Use QR code to register. POC is Justin Boddy, 907-322-2232