

FBI Basic Crisis Negotiation Course

Presented By:

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Anchorage Field Office Crisis Negotiation Team

--- In partnership with the ---

Anchorage Police Department Crisis Negotiation Team

Description: Students will receive basic instruction on theory and practice to resolve hostage/barricade and suicide situations through proven crisis negotiation techniques. This 40-hour course is for individuals currently assigned to crisis negotiation teams, or who anticipate dealing with hostage/barricade situations in the course of their duty. Attendees must be sworn police/peace officers, correctional officers, eligible military personnel, mental health professionals, or tactical dispatchers sponsored by their department. Extensive role plays and team exercises are employed in this training.

Date/Time: September 16, 2024 (0800-1700) through September 20, 2024. Check in on September 16, 2024 at 0730.

Instructors: FBI and Anchorage Police Department Negotiators

Location: Anchorage Police Department Jewel Lake Training Center, 3760 W. Dimond Boulevard, Anchorage, AK 99502

Fee: There is no fee for this training. Travel, accommodations, and all meals will be at the expense of the trainee's agency.

PRIOR TO ATTENDING THIS COURSE: Register attendance by August 30, 2024 by contacting Special Agent Benjamin Winship at brwinship@fbi.gov, and Sgt. Marvin Weinrick at marvin.weinrick@anchorageak.gov. Class size is limited.