In the Matter of) Jordan Serafin) APSC No. 2020-06
Respondent,)

FINDING OF DISQUALIFICATION

Pursuant to AS 18.65.220(6) and 13 AAC 85.100 the Alaska Police Standards Council of the State of Alaska (APSC) may deny an application or find a police officer applicant ineligible for police officer certification or training, if the applicant does not satisfy the minimum standards set by the council for certification. An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Director may petition for review of that decision by the council. The council's review of that decision is controlled by the Administrative Procedure Act.

On or about June 17, 2019, Jordan Serafin, "Respondent," was hired as a Police Officer by the Anchorage Police Department. On or about February 8, 2020 Respondent was arrested by the Alaska State Troopers and charged with Burglary in the first degree, Assault in the 4th degree, and Criminal Trespass. He resigned from Anchorage Police Department on February 13, 2020.

On February 12, 2021, the Council's Executive Director made a finding that, subject to the provisions of 13 AAC 85.110(a)(3), the Respondent was disqualified from hire or certification as an Alaska police officer because he lacked good moral character as evidenced by his criminal charges for assault and other offenses.

On March 1, 2021, Respondent was formally notified by certified United States Postal Service mail of the Executive Director's findings, of his right to appeal the decision to the council under the Administrative Procedures Act, and that failure to respond to the findings within statutory deadlines would result in a default finding of Disqualification being entered into his record.

WHEREAS, the Executive Director of the Alaska Police Standards Council has found that Respondent is disqualified from certification as a police officer in Alaska; and,

WHEREAS, the Respondent was notified of this finding and of his right to appeal the decision to the Council, pursuant to the Alaska Administrative Procedures Act; and,

WHEREAS the Respondent failed to respond to the notification within statutory timeframes to appeal the decision of the Executive Director;
