

Temporary Presence in Alaska Registered Sex Offender Report

Registered sex offenders from other jurisdictions who travel to Alaska are required to notify the Alaska Sex Offender Registry office of their presence in the state. For visits of less than 30 days, this temporary presence report completes notification.

If you are physically present in the state for more than 30 days or are intending to live in Alaska, you must fully register with the Alaska Sex Offender Registry. This temporary presence form does NOT comply with those registration requirements. Registration forms and instructions are available on the website.

This report must be submitted before the visit or within three days of arriving in Alaska.
