On 7/8/18 at approximately 0030 hours, the Village Public Safety Officer in Emmonak was notified that Samuel J. Moses 19 Y.O.A. of Emmonak has been missing and not heard from since 7/5/18 when he went to Alakanuk to visit friends. On 7/9/18, the Emmonak VPSO initiated a hasty search in Alakanuk and traveled to Alakanuk to investigate the incident. Initial investigation revealed that Samuel was last seen in Alakanuk on 7/5/18 at the Alakanuk dump and was highly intoxicated. Samuel was wearing light blue denim jeans, a brown hooded sweatshirt and black shoes. The dump is not located near a body of water so the search area is limited to the dump and the surrounding area. Grant Aviation has also been contacted and is assisting with an aerial search. Investigation continues. Anyone with any information regarding Moses' whereabouts is asked to contact AST in Bethel at 907-543-2294 or in Fairbanks at 907-451-5100 and reference incident AK18047194.
