Alaska Police Standards Council Meeting Actions – December 1, 2015

(Juneau, Alaska) – The Alaska Police Standards Council held a regular meeting on December 1, 2015, in Anchorage. The Council considered and took action regarding the following cases:

Revoked certification:

Herman Trent - formerly with Anchorage Airport Police and Fire

Robert Grant - formerly with the Department of Corrections

Neal Miner - formerly with the Alaska State Troopers

The Council meets at least twice a year to discuss minimum eligibility, hiring and training standards for and possible revocation actions against police, correctional, parole, probation, village police, and municipal correctional officers.
