CONSENT AGREEMENT

In the interest of a prompt and speedy settlement of the above captioned matter, consistent with the public interest, statutory requirements and the responsibilities of the Alaska Police Standards Council, and pursuant to A.S. 18.65.220, A.S. 18.65.240 and 13 AAC 85.110 the undersigned parties enter into this Consent Agreement as a final disposition of this matter.

1. Respondent, without admitting any allegations that may have been made against him, hereby permanently relinquishes his Alaska peace officer certification.

2. Respondent waives his right to a hearing and waives the requirement of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law for the Decision and Order below to be final and effective.

3. Respondent waives any appeal or judicial review of the action agreed to herein.

4. Respondent and the Alaska Police Standards Council agree that this voluntary relinquishment of certification shall permanently bar Respondent from work as a peace officer in Alaska.

5. Respondent understands that he has the right to consult with and be represented by an attorney concerning this agreement and any potential Alaska Police Standards Council

1 proceedings. He avows that he has either done so or waives the right to an attorney.

2 6. Respondent understands that the public records law and the open meeting law apply
3 to Alaska Police Standards Council. Nothing in this agreement shall be interpreted to accord
4 secrecy to the records of the Alaska Police Standards Council above and beyond that already
5 required by law.

RE: Reinstatement of Police Certificate

Dear Mr. Boor:

On August 3, 2007, you appeared before the Alaska Police Standards Council to request a reinstatement of your Basic Police Certificate.

After hearing and considering your testimony, the Council voted to reinstate your Basic Police Certificate effective immediately. This decision allows you to apply for police and correction/probation positions within the State of Alaska.

If you become employed full-time with a law enforcement agency in Alaska, your Basic Police Certificate will become active one year from your date of hire.

We wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Terry Vrabec
Executive Director
