

ALASKA STATE TROOPERS UNIDENTIFIED BODY

Jane Doe, nicknamed: "Eklutna Annie" found in July 1980 outside of Eagle River, Alaska. She was the victim of a homicide by the serial killer, Robert Hanson. Although Hanson was found guilty of the homicide, the body has never been identified. The jewelry was on the body at the time of discovery and appears to be handmade. The photo is a facial reconstruction of the skull.

Race: Possibly white with American Indian/Native mix
Age: Late teens to early 20's.
Height: 4 Feet 11 Inches to 5 Feet 3 Inches
Hair: Light brown to reddish-blond worn to the middle of her back.

NIC: U150004982

Anyone with information as to the identity of the victim or knowledge of the jewelry or it's maker is asked to contact: Alaska State Troopers Missing Persons Clearinghouse at 907-269-5497 or 907-269-5058.

