On 09-27-2020 at approximately 1434 hours, William Peacock was reported overdue from meeting his son at the Chatanika Landing located at the end of Old Murphy Dome Road in Fairbanks. It was also reported that his airboat was found adrift in the Chatanika River. Alaska Wildlife Troopers responded by helicopter and boat to search the area. Peacock's boat was found in a log jam approximately 1/2 mile from his residence. The area near the river was searched by air. The river was searched by air and with several boats. Several searchers also walked the riverbank and a nearby trail. No further sign of Peacock was revealed. Anyone with information as to the whereabouts of William Peacock is asked to contact the Alaska State Troopers in Fairbanks at 907-451-5100 and reference incident number AK20069373.
