FINDING OF DISQUALIFICATION

Pursuant to AS 18.65.220(6) and 13 AAC 85.100(c) the Alaska Police Standards Council of the State of Alaska, provides that the Executive Director may deny an application, or find a police officer job applicant or training applicant ineligible for police officer certification, if the applicant does not satisfy the requirements set by the council for certification. An applicant aggrieved by the decision of the executive director may petition for review of that decision by the council. The council's review of that decision is controlled by the Administrative Procedure Act.

On or about January 2, 2018, Johnathon L Repasky, "Respondent," applied to the Alaska Department of Public Safety (DPS) for the Council Certified position of Alaska State Trooper. During the hiring process and within official documents filed in support of his application, the Respondent admitted that he had assaulted his younger sister in 2016, and then lied about it in sworn testimony in an Alaska State Court domestic violence protective order hearing. Alaska DPS investigators obtained copies of the Respondent's sworn court testimony and verified that the Respondent had committed the crime of Perjury on or about September 19, 2016, when he testified before the court.

On April 12, 2018, the Executive Director of the Council made a finding that, subject to the provisions of 13 AAC 85.010(a)(3), the Respondent was disqualified from hire or certification as an Alaska Police Officer because he demonstrated dishonesty and a lack of respect for the rights of others and for the laws of this state. Therefore, the respondent lacked good moral character, as defined in 13 AAC 85.900(7), and was disqualified for hire and certification as an officer in Alaska.

On April 12, 2018, Respondent was formally notified of the Executive Director's findings and of his right to appeal this decision to the council under the Administrative Procedures Act.

On April 12, 2018, by telephone call to the Executive Director, Respondent acknowledged receipt of the Executive Director's findings, his rights under the Administrative Procedures Act, and that a failure to respond to the findings within statutory deadlines would result in a default finding of Disqualification being entered into his record.

WHEREAS, the Executive Director of the Police Standards Council has found that Respondent is disqualified from certification as a police officer in Alaska; and,
