

HB 66: Changes to Grand Jury and Impact on Officer Testimony

Virtual Training presented by Michael Ebell,
Assistant Attorney General, Department of Law

Who:

for Municipal and State Law Enforcement Officers who are commissioned in Alaska.

What:

HB 66 changed court rules to permit hearsay at Grand Jury starting January 1, 2025. This means officers will be able to testify about what witnesses told them during a course of investigation. This training will cover the impact this has on officer testimony and report writing. This material will help officers be prepared to testify accurately under the new rules.
